

From 7th to 11th November,

we went to Berlin by plane for the anniversary of the fall of the Wall, which happened 20 years ago. There were 32 of us: 28 students and 4 teachers (Mrs Brilland, Mrs Poirier, Mr Moquillon and Mr Toublanc.) We slept in a youth hostel called Amstel House; we spent 4 days there. We discovered a lot of monuments and we visited 2 museums. On Monday, we saw the fall of the dominos, which we really enjoyed. When we were at CheckpointCharly, we were filmed and we were shown live on the news. Our families, who were watching TV at 1 pm, were surprised to see their children on the screen! We did some shopping in KaDeWe: the biggest shop in Europe. It was last day in Berlin. We travelled by tube a lot. We came back to France by plane (again) and we slept in Paris, where Mrs Auger joined us and we said goodbye to Mrs Brilland. After that we went to Brussels and we saw the European Parliament and we came back to Montaigu, exhausted, at 3 am.
